Looking for MCI Conversion Owners

If you own an MCI coach converted to a motor home, or if you are planning to convert one in the future, then the MCI International Chapter of the Family Motor Coach Association is looking for you. Chapter members recently decided to initiate a program to increase membership by searching for and inviting other MCI coach owners to join.

Originally founded in 1982, the MCI International Chapter of FMCA consists of families, couples and individuals who own MCI coaches which have been converted to motor homes. While some members own new coaches, the majority of members do not. Some own MCI coaches which could be classed as vintage and other members have converted their own coaches.

There are numerous benefits which go with being a member of the MCI International Chapter. Many members say that the ability to share knowledge and experience with other MCI coach owners is the single greatest benefit. Rallies are held in conjunction with the FMCA national conventions and provide an excellent opportunity for members to meet, exchange information and share friendship and common interests. A newsletter, which includes information on meetings as well as technical information, is sent to chapter members. The Chapter also has its own Web site with membership information, useful Web links, and a marketplace.

Members of the MCI International Chapter met at the recent Family Motor Coach Convention in Perry, Georgia. During that meeting the officers and members decided to encourage additional MCI conversion owners to join by making the Chapter better known and by telling people about the benefits of membership.

Annual dues for the MCI International Chapter are only $15 per year. There is a one-time initiation fee of $15 for individuals and $25 for couples.

Information on joining the MCI International Chapter and membership applications are available from the Chapter Secretary, Betty Snyder, by writing to her at: PO Box 148, Emlenton, Pennsylvania 16373-0148, or you can phone (724) 867-6701. Information on the MCI International Chapter and membership application forms are also available on the Chapter Web site at <http://www.plachno.com/mci>.
